

And be it further known by these Presents, that I the said Samuel C. Harrington, am held and firmly bound unto the said Hartwell his heirs and assigns, in the sum of Two Hundred Dollars to be paid unto the said Hartwell his heirs or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself, my heirs, executors, administrators and assigns by these Presents

Now the condition of this obligation is such, that if the said Harrington his heirs or assigns, shall convey unto the said Hartwell his heirs or assigns, whatever further title may or shall be unto the said Harrington conveyed by the Trustees of the Town Site of Lawrence, said Territory, or by or from any person or persons whomsoever, or by any power, whatsoever, by virtue of a patent issuing from the Land Office at Washington unto one William H. R. Lykins, or one Robert Robittale a Wyandotte Indian, or by virtue of any other authority at such time as said title shall be to him conveyed, then this obligation shall be wholly void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in full force.

In Testimony Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the seventh day of June A. D. 1855.
