

Know all Men by these Presents, that I, Samuel N. Wood, for and in consideration of five hundred dollars to me in hand paid by Edward P. Fitch, have bargained, sold, conveyed, and by these presents do bargain, sell, convey, and forever quit-claim to the said Fitch a city Interest in the City of Lawrence, being the one drawn by me as a member of the Lawrence Association including the whole of said interest and the whole of my interest in Lawrence as a member of said Association, to have and to hold the same as if held by myself.

I further hereby order and authorize the Trustees of the City of Lawrence to deed said City interest to E. P. Fitch instead of myself.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this April 7th 1855.
