On this ninth day of February A. D. 1860. before me a Notary Public in and for said County, came John G. Haskell and M. E. Haskell to me well known to be the identical persons described in and who executed the above conveyance as grantors and acknowledged the same to be their own free act and deed. She, the said M. E. Haskell being by me first made acquainted with the contents of said instrument, upon an examination apart from her said husband, acknowledged that she executed the same, and relinquished her dower in the real estate therein mentioned, freely and without compulsion or undue influence of her said husband.
