WATER & SEWER
PLANNING STUDY

MAKE THE AGES
OFFICIAL

The Board executed a non-discrimination agreement between the United States Department of Agriculture, Farmers Home Administration, and the Board of County Commissioners pertaining to the project being done in conjunction with the Farmers Home Administration of a Comprehensive Area-Wide and Sewer Planning Study.

It was moved by Mr. Booth and seconded by Mr. Kampschroeder that it being apparent no formal action was taken to appoint the planning board members listed in the planning board minutes of January 27, 1966, therefore, that the Board as listed on that date be officially appointed and that their actions between this date and January 27, 1966 be made official, and that all terms now expired be continued until their successors are appointed. Motion carried unanimously.

The Board received the copy of the minutes of the United States Department of Agriculture Defense Board Meeting held November 13, 1968.
