Mrs. Cerf
discussed
our local health department

Mrs. Raymond Cerf appeared before the Board to discuss with the Board certain services that she felt should be supplied to the citizens of Douglas County by our local health department. Following Mrs. Cerf's presentation the Board agreed and informed Mrs. Cerf that inasmuch as she had cooperation with the City of Lawrence delegated the authority to operate the county health department to a joint appointed Board of health that we would discuss her recommendations and suggestions with the City Commission and with the jointly appointed health board.

Mud creek
Flood Control

The Board noted receipt of a copy of a letter from Mr. Buford Watson, manager of the City of Lawrence, to Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Richards explaining the City's position relative to the implementation of the Mud Creek Flood Control Project.
