Ambulance:
Discussion
on health
dept. report

The Board discussed the recent report received from the Lawrence-Douglas County Health Department relative to inspection of the ambulance service by that department. Those present for the discussion were: Joyce Rankin and Richard Hack of the health department, and Leonard Barber, owner and operator of Gold Cross Ambulance Service. The discussion brought out that basically deficiencies which were noted in the report to the Board either had been corrected or were in the process of being corrected. Those present felt that a revised schedule showing equipment should be completed and also that there should be further discussion as to the time intervals of the inspection by the health department.
