the revised salary bracket schedule for both general offices and the sheriff department, and that Memo #8 be remitted to all county offices and department heads setting out full particulars relative to the cost-of-living increase, seconded by Mr. Stoneback, and carried unanimously.

Bridge Construction:

Installation +
procedures for issuance of bonds

Attorney Charles Stough appeared before the Board for a preliminary discussion relative to developing timetables and procedures for the issuance of bonds for proposed bridge construction projects. It was generally agreed that further consideration would need to be given this matter from 30 to 45 days hence in order that proper time be allowed to have funds on hand at the time which seems likely that construction may begin on some rural bridges.

No further business, the Board adjourned to meet on Monday, December 16, 1974.
