Planning:
Howard Heck request delayed
until 7/1/76

At 10:00 a.m., Dick McClanathan, Lawrence-Douglas County Planning Director, appeared before the Board along with Attorney George Catt, representing Howard F. Heck, applicant, in a request for rezoning approximately 102 acres from A (Agricultural) to I-2 (Light Industrial), generally located South of Mud Creek, along the West side of Grant Township Road No. 88, East of U. S. Highway No. 24-59, and approximately 2000 feet North of Douglas County Road No. 23, which was continued until this date. Following brief review of the matter and with a request by Attorney George Catt that an additional ninety days continuance be granted, which would expire on February 4, 1976, it was moved by Mr. Stoneback that the Board grant this request and was seconded by Mr. Whitenight. Mr. Stoneback and Mr. Whitenight voted "yes" and Mr. Heck abstained. Motion carried.
