

such order was made requires a sinking fund to be provided for discharging all bonds issued in pursuance of said act.

Therefore resolved that a sinking fund be established to pay said bonds as they may fall due from year to year as follows viz:-

That to pay bonds amounting to one thousand dollars falling due on the first day of March 1860 there be anney tax of one mill on a dollar of all the taxable property of the County.

That to pay bonds amounting to $1000 falling due on the first day of March 1861, there be assessed and collected in the year in which said bonds fall due the amount of $1800 in cash.

That to pay bonds amounting to $1000 falling due on the first day of March 1862 and interest due on that day on all bonds of which these bonds are a part there be assessed and collected in the year in which said bonds and interest fall due the amount of $1700 in cash.

That to pay bonds amounting to $1000 falling due on the first day of March 1863 and interest due on that day on all bonds of which these bonds are a part there be assessed and collected in the year in which said bonds and interest fall due the amount of $1600 in cash.

That to pay bonds amounting to $1000 falling due on the first day of March 1864 and interest due on that day on all bonds of which these bonds are a part there be collected and assessed in the year in which said bonds and interest fall due the amount of $1500 in cash.

That to pay bonds amounting to $1000 falling due on the first day of March 1865 and interest due on that day on all bonds of which these bonds are a part there