

In the matter of the petition of C. J. Walbruff in relation to assessment of Personal property

The petitioner having made application to have his tax on personal property remitted for the year 1868 and said C. J. Walbruff having filed his affidavit setting forth that on the first day of March 1868 he did not own any personal property subject to taxation and the Board being satisfied that said assessment was erroneous and illegal It is Ordered that the tax of C. J. Walbruff on personal property for the year 1868 be remitted.
