is reasonable and just, but that said road is not of sufficient utility and importance then payment out of the county treasury. It is Ordered that the petition be dismissed at the costs of the petitioners without further proceedings.

In the matter of the petition of J. G. McGhee and others for the establishment of a county road.

The jurors having reported in favor of the establishment of said road the report was this day publicly read, and said jurors having made a separate report in writing of the amount of compensation and damages awarded by them to land owners by reason of the location of said road through their several premises. Said report was also read, and the board being of opinion that the award of the jurors to wit:

To Mary C. Enos Twenty five Dollars. compensation

To James B. Leck Twenty five Dollars. compensation is reasonable and just, but that said road is not of sufficient importance, to justify the payment of such amounts out of the county treasury. It is therefore Ordered that the petition be dismissed at the costs of the petitioners without further proceedings.
