

proofs adduced, that the personal property of Amasa Sprague in Douglas County was erroneously assessed by Fortunatus Gleason, Assessor, as the property of Akers and Sprague, that it was erroneously estimated at 200 head of Horses, instead of 87 head of Horses and Mares, and 33 head of Colts and fillies - that it was erroneously valued at $50. per head - Therefore it is Ordered that an abatement of $16.⁷² tax and $1.⁶⁷ penalty on the said tax assessed to Akers and Sprague on personal property for the year A.D. 1873 be made in favor of Akers & Sprague.

In the Matter of the application of Amasa Sprague, a Citizen of the State of Rhode Island for relief, and abatement of taxes on assessment of personal property for A.D. 1873, in the City of Lawrence, instead of Wakarusa township, where kept

It was resolved by the Board on motion, that while in the opinion of the Board, the personal property of said Amasa Sprague was improperly assessed in the City of Lawrence instead of Wakarusa township, the City, and City School tax on said property being $394.²⁸ for said year A.D. 1873, this board has no power to remit said City, and City School tax, without the consent of said City of Lawrence.

The Board adjourned until tomorrow, July 25-1874 at Eight O'clock A.M.
