

Ordered that the County Clerk be instructed to present the following to the City Council of the City of Lawrence:

The Board of Commissioners in Session January 25th beg leave to represent that the stabling of horses under the County offices renders them exceedingly unpleasant of occupation: we therefore respectfully invite your attention to the same and request that some action be taken to abate what seriously affects the comfort of the offices

Ordered that John Hutchings be and is hereby employed to attend to the two cases No 3824 Riley Brown & Morris Allen vs Douglas Co & No 3702 The State of Kan vs Mary Clayton & others in the lower Court to be paid twenty five dollars each, and if taken to the Supreme Court fifty dollars: and if the suits are won he is to be paid seventy five dollars

The Board adjourned sine die
Attest B. F. Digg
Clerk
John D. Skinner
Chairman
For a record of the order cancelled Jan'y 25th 1877 See page 613 Record

Lawrence, Douglas County, February 10th A.D. 1877.

At the request of two members of the Board the Chairman called a Special Meeting for the purpose

1st. Of considering the propriety of submitting a proposition to the legal voters of Douglas County to authorize the Board of Commissioners to compromise the St. Louis Lawrence and Denver Railroad bonds.

2d. Also to consider the matter of taking further legal steps in reference to securing the admission of Josephine McCallan into the Insane Asylum.

There were present John D. Skinner, Geo. W. Cady & John Walter & the County Clerk B. F. Digg.

The following resolution was adopted on the motion of Dr. D. Skinner

Whereas the City Council of the City of Lawrence have submitted a proposition to compromise with the holders of the St. Louis Lawrence & Denver Railroad bonds at fifty cents on the dollar

Therefore Resolved that we join them in submitting a like proposition if authorized by the legal voters of the County so to do; and that the County Attorney be instructed to prepare a proposition which shall authorize the Commissioners to issue new bonds in settlement