

reasonable expense, taking into consideration the utility, convenience and inconvenience and expense which will result to individuals as well as the public by the location of said road, as shown by the Field Notes and Plot of the Survey hereto attached.

He would respectfully report that the said road ought to be located for the following reasons - The Public convenience demands it and it can be made at a trifling cost fit for travel.

He have also determined that the public convenience requires that such road shall be established forty feet in (40) feet in width.

There being no objections and no damages claimed the Board after having had the same under consideration Ordered that the report of the Viewers be accepted and the Road established as per the Viewers report and that the Co. Clerk issue to the proper officers the necessary papers for the lawful opening of the same.
