

In the matter of the } Compromise of Judgments. } The Board received ^{and} compromised portion of judgments against the county held by M. Bolles ^{and} J. Zebley as follows:

Boston 26th July 1877.

A.L. Williams.

Topeka, Kansas.

Please deliver to the Receiver of the Merchants Savings Institution, or order, the proceeds of coupons taken from Douglas County Bonds, Nos 158, 159, 160, 161, 162, 163, 164, 165, 166, 167, 168, 169, 175, 176, 177, 178, 179, 180, 181, 194, due Jan. & July, 1875, 1876, 1877, & Jan 1878. being $4,900 in all. These coupons being now in suit, or judgment. Or, if the coupons can be delivered, please deliver them. The condition of the delivery is that all charges & costs as agreed on with you, are to be paid before the delivery of the coupons, or the proceeds of collection. It is understood that this order does not alter or modify the arrangement made with you, when you took charge of the collection, or suits of these coupons. By so doing you will oblige.

Yours truly,

M. Bolles Recy

Deliver to John F. Zebley Jr. or order.

Abraham A. Burroughs }
Henry F. Crowell } Receivers of the Alphonse J. Robinson } Merchants Savings Institution.

New York, March 30th 1880

or order

John F. Zebley Jr.

John F. Zebley Jr.

vs.

Board of County Commissioners of Douglas County, Kansas.

In the U.S. Circuit Court for the District of Kansas.

No. 2842. Judgment Dec. 15th 1877. $2236 ³⁸/₁₀₀

For Value received of ^{and} from J.W.E. Griffith I do hereby, sell ^{and} assign and set over to him the judgment rendered in the above case, to and for his own use ^{and} benefit, together with all my title ^{and} interest in ^{and} right under the same ^{and} authorize him to enforce ^{and} collect the same for his own benefit, but at his own cost, ^{and} expense ^{and} without recourse on me.

New York City, New York.

March 30th 1880.

John F. Zebley Jr.