

Lawrence, Kansas March 29th 1892.

The Board met in special session. Present Commissioners J. C. Mearns, chairman, H. B. Baker and B. F. Hookins and the County clerk.

Release of J. N. Abrams

The Board had under consideration the case of J. N. Abrams confined in the County Jail under sentence for selling intoxicating liquors and it being shown that said Abrams was dying of consumption, and that his fine had been reduced from $100.00 to one dollar, and that he was unable to pay the costs in the case, it was ordered that the costs be remitted & he be released from custody.

Appointment of Sam Bryant.

The Board appointed Sam Bryant as guard to take charge of the County prisoners to be worked in the rock pile.

On motion the Board adjourned
