

And - Whereas - there was written or stamped on each of said Bonds and Coupons, without the authority of this Board, the following words, "The property of and payable to The Douglas County Sinking Fund and not negotiable or transferable." And whereas Douglas County claims no right, title or interest in or to said Bonds and Coupons, having sold the same in good faith, and whereas said endorsement on said Bonds and Coupons is misleading and might prejudice the sale of said Bonds - Now therefore be it resolved, "That Douglas County disclaim all interest in or to said Bonds and hereby empowers the owner of said Bonds to erase or remove therefrom the said endorsements to wit: The words "The property of and payable to The Douglas County Sinking Fund and not negotiable or transferable,"

The Board adjourned to meet Monday March 5th 1900

On Motion it was voted to adopt The Minutes as read March 10 - 1900
