No. United States of America $ 100.
State of Kansas
Douglas County Bridge Bond
Douglas County.

Know All Men By These Presents. That the County of Douglas, in the State of Kansas, is indebted to and promises to pay the bearer One Hundred Dollars, lawful money of the United States of America, on the first day of January, A.D. 1924, with interest thereon at the rate of four and one-half (4½) per cent per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of July and January of each year upon the presentation and delivery of the proper coupons hereto annexed, signed by the Chairmen of the Board of County Commissioners and by the County Clerk. Both principal and interest of this Bond are payable at the Fiscal Agency of the State of Kansas in New York City, New York. And the said County is hereby held and firmly bound and the faith and credit of said County are hereby pledged for the prompt payment of this Bond and interest at maturity.

This bond is one of a series of three hundred and sixty five bonds of like date, tenor and effect, numbered from one to three hundred and sixty five inclusive, issued by said County for the purpose of paying for the repairing and rebuilding of the County Bridge over the Kansas River at the City of Lawrence in said County of Douglas.

This Bond is issued and executed under and by authority of and in accordance with an Act of the Legislature of the State of Kansas entitled, "An Act authorizing and directing the Board of County Commissioners of Douglas County, Kansas, to repair or rebuild certain bridges therein, to-wit, the County Bridge over the Kansas River at the City of Lawrence, in said County, and the County Bridge over the Wakarusa river at the City of Eudora in said County, to issue and sell the bonds of said County in payment therefor and repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act; which took effect July 9th, 1903."
