

Dec. 5,
1905.
Bills

Board of County Commissioners met in adjourned regular session. Geo. H. Brune, J. C. Walton, A. C. Walter & County Clerk present. Bills were allowed as per Allowance Record.

The following petition was granted by the Board:—
To the County Commissioners of Douglas County:—

We most respectfully ask permission to lay down a four inch gas main along the road known as and called the Haskell Macadam road from Morris Street South to Haskell Institute. Said pipe line to be laid at the side of the roadway so as not to interfere with traffic on said road. We also ask to lay service pipes across said roadway for the purpose of furnishing gas to residents thereon, said road to be replaced in good condition by us.

Respectfully Submitted,

Citizens Light, Heat & Power Co.

C. M. Ellis appointed Treasurer

On Motion the Board appointed C. M. Ellis of Willow Springs Township, Treasurer of said township to fill vacancy.
