

Wednesday, December 10 - 1919.

The board met in adjourned regular session, all commissioners present, Chairman A. Andrews presiding.

Acting under order of the State Tax Commission, as it being shown to the satisfaction of the board that the personal assessment against Anna S. Dickson was illegal because of the fact that Mrs. Dickson is not now ^{the home district} and was not on March 1, 1919, a resident of Lawrence or Douglas County, a cancellation of the tax charged against her, in amount $45.59, on a valuation of $1,865, and a notification to the Co. Treasurer to that effect.

The board approved the contract let bond of Horace Young, successful bidder for the construction of the Coleman, Byrd and Schick bridges.

Claims against the County were presented, audited and allowed, for which see December Allowance Record.

Saturday, December 20 - 1919.

The board met in regular session, all commissioners present, Chairman A. Andrews presiding.

A reconsideration of the amount of insurance to be placed with the different local agents was reached upon, & the board spent some time in mapping out what in their judgment would be proper and equitable. However, no decision was arrived at, the matter being left to be finally determined at a meeting to be held Saturday, December 27 - 1919.

The board ordered a refund of $1.00 to Mr. D.C. Shields, account of dog erroneously assessed against him.

The board also directed a refund of $4.89 in favor of Miss Jane R. Walsh, account failure of deputy assessor to allow her the constitutional exemption of $200.00.

The clerk submitted to the board a communication from the State Tax Commission, under date of December 18, 1919, conveying the suggestion that in order to qualify values with other towns within which are only a necessary part of real estate values in 1920, the board ought a reassessment of real property in Douglas County in 1920. The matter was discussed.
