Accompanying this petition we hand your honorable body an accurate enumeration of the legal electors of the proposed rural high school district, taken and verified by an elector of said proposed district.

Here follows a list of 508 names of resident electors. Following this appear the names of 327 resident petitioners, all residing within the territory embraced within the proposed rural high school district.

The board very carefully went over the petition, we finding that it was signed by more than two-fifths of all the legal voters in said proposed district; that the proposed district contained not less than sixteen square miles; that the petition specifically stated that the proposed high school building be located in the City of Leecompton, Douglas County, Kansas, and the amount in bonds it was proposed to issue set out as $40,000, it was thereupon agreed and ordered by motion made, seconded we passed that the proper legal petitioners be granted, we that an election be called and held Saturday, January 31-1920, in the building known as the Odd Fellows Hall, in the city of Leecompton, Leecompton Township, Douglas County, Kansas, located within the boundaries of the proposed rural high school district, in order that there may be submitted to the legal electors of said proposed rural high school district the proposition to form a rural high school district from the territory designated in the petition, that bonds in the amount of $40,000 be issued, and that the proposed high school building be located in the city of Leecompton, Douglas County, Kansas.

In the matter of compensation for services as County assessor or section for office for the year 1920 it was agreed between the board and Mr. Co. Assessor, that he be allowed $600.00 for his services in addition to the compensation allowed him as County clerk.

Claims against the county were presented, audited & allowed, for which see January Allowance Record.

Outstanding county warrants, that is, warrants which have been allowed & in force called for since the 1st of January for three years or longer without being called for, aggregating $125.01, were called for and paid, ordered cancelled by the board.
