

Thursday, March 10, 1921.

The board met in adjourned regular session, all Commissioners present, all Commissioners and Chairman A. L. Cox presiding.

By direction of the State Tax Commission, the board ordered a refund to Geo. Fraker on a personal property valuation of $1,000, represented by assessment on oil stock, on which the tax is $27.27. The stock is assessable in Lincoln county, of which county Mr. Fraker is a resident, but met in Douglas county.

The board heard the application of Jess Willard for an entrance onto his place from the Fort to Fort Highway. The board took the matter under advisement.

Claims against the county were presented, audited and allowed, for which see March Allowance Record.

Friday, March 11, 1921.

The board met in adjourned regular session, all commissioners present, all Commissioners and Chairman A. L. Cox presiding.

Claims against the county were presented, audited and allowed, for which see March Allowance Record.

Saturday, March 12, 1921.

The board met in adjourned regular session, all commissioners present, all Commissioners and Chairman A. L. Cox presiding.

The board of Harry Evans, appointed Deputy Assessor for the city of Lawrence, was approved.

Claims against the county were presented, audited and allowed, for which see March Allowance Record.