Thursday, August 9, 1922

The board met in adjourned regular session, Commissioners Stule, Kutzinger, & Hopf and the County Clerk being present, Commissioner & Chairman Stule presided.

Claims against the county were presented, audited and allowed for Allowed which see August Allowance Record.

At 10 o'clock the board adjourned for the day, but a few minutes later convened at a special session of the joint board composed of the Board of County Commissioners of Douglas County, Kansas, and the Board of Commissioners of the City of Lawrence, Kansas, under the provision of Chapter 92 of the Session Laws of Kansas of 1921. There were present at this meeting Commissioners Stule, Kutzinger & Hopf, representing the Board of County Commissioners of Douglas County, and Commissioners Stummer & Lillard, representing the Board of Commissioners of the City of Lawrence.

The purpose of the meeting was to hear complaints of the parties in interest with reference to the apportionment of the cost of the improvement of N. 7th Street from Court Street north to the north city limit, in Lawrence, in accordance with the resolution of this joint board of August 10, 1921, as made by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Lawrence, upon all lots and tracts of land within the benefit district in the City of Lawrence, and in accordance with written notices mailed to the owner or owners of all said tracts, and lots liable to special assessment to pay for said improvements.

Through its attorney, T. M. Lillard, the Union Pacific Railroad Company filed written objection to assessment for paving N. 7th Street, as follows.

Objections of Union Pacific R.R. Co. to Assessment for Paving of N. 7th Street, in Lawrence

Union Pacific Railroad Company hereby complains that the lots and pieces of ground belonging to it included in the benefit district for the paving of North Seventh Street in the City of Lawrence have been illegally appraised as average, and asks that the appraisement and assessment be
