November 9, 1927.

The Board of County Commissioners met in adjourned regular session with D. L. Burton, Chairman, Commissioner X. J. Kennedy, and G. E. Kretzinger and C. Bowman, County Clerk, Present. Claims against the county were presented and allowed as per allowance register. The Board ordered the County Clerk to instruct the County Treasurer to cancel personal Property tax amounting to $46.00 assessed against Mrs. E. H. Hunsinger for the reason that Mrs. Hunsinger was not credited with her $200.00 constitutional exemption. Also the fees and interest on sale No 26 for the 1926.

On motion of G. E. Kretzinger seconded by Commissioner X. J. Kennedy the following resolution was unanimously adopted,
