February 23, 1935

The Douglas County Board of County Commissioners was called in special session by its chairman James F. Brass and met in the Commissioners Room at 2:00 P. M. February 23, 1935 with Earl T. Black and Chris Schaake, Commissioners; U. S. G. Plank, County Clerk; and also the Douglas County Relief Committee present.

The purpose of the meeting was to listen to an appeal from a Mr. Dunn and his wife from a decision made by Poor Commissioner, Miss Mary Jamison, over the payment of a months rent which Mr. Dunn thought the Poor Commissioners should pay. Miss Jamison was supported in her decision. The County Commissioners voted to pay the Dunn family six dollars for one months rent.

The matter of First Aid Kits for foreman on relief projects was discussed. Earl T. Black moved that County Engineer E. E. Trueblood supply each foreman with a first aid kit. The motion had a second in Chris Schaake, and by a vote of the entire Board Mr. Trueblood was ordered to supply the kits.
