Bulletin 277
A special meeting of the Board of County Commissioners was called by the Chairman James F. Brass, for the purpose of meeting with the members of the Douglas County Relief Committee. At said meeting, all the Commissioners and the County Clerk were present. In addition to the two members of the Board, Earl T. Black and James F. Brass, who are members of the Relief Committee, George Hedrick, John Selig, Ray Ogden, other members of the committee were present.

The subject under consideration was Bulletin No. 277, sent out from those in charge of KERC at Topeka. This bulletin provoked considerable discussion, which discussion was disposed of in a motion made by Earl T. Black and seconded by Chris Schaake, which motion follows:

Moved that the Douglas County Relief Committee ask that those in charge of the KERC in Topeka, allow Douglas County to continue with the present Poor Commissioner, Harold T. Baker, and with the present Case Supervisor, Abbie Langmaid, until such time as the Committee is unable to comply with the requirements of Bulletin No. 277; the motion was put by the Chairman and it became a vote--all Committee members voting "yes".

Meeting adjourned.
