At a meeting called by the Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, namely, James F. Brass, all the Commissioners and the County Clerk were present.

The immediate purpose of the meeting was to confer with the newly appointed Poor Commissioner-Case Supervisor, Mrs. Mildred Davis Watson and Mr. Henry from the KERC office at Topeka. The work of the County was discussed in detail and a number of suggestions were offered by Mr. Henry looking toward a more efficient administration of the detail work of the Poor Commissioner's office. In connection therewith the matter of a revolving fund for the Poor Commissioner was discussed and disposed of finally by suggesting that the Poor Commissioner and County Clerk work together under the ruling touching the County Clerk's revolving fund.

J. F. Miles, undertaker, appeared before the Board requesting the Board to pay for the burial of one Curran Gray, a colored man about 85 years of age. The Board under the proper form authorized the burial at the expense of the County.

No further business appearing, the Board adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

January 25, 1936

At a called meeting of the County Commissioners of Douglas County, Kansas, said meeting having been called by the Chairman James F. Brass, the Commissioners Chris Schaake, Earl T. Black and James F. Brass, Chairman and County Clerk U. S. G. Plank were present.

Representatives from the Poor Commissioner's office and from the office of the KERC in Topeka were present and discussed the personnel for the relief office as to be continued for a short period from the present date. After discussion, it was moved and seconded and properly voted that for the present the office should continue with 3 stenographers, one file clerk and four case-visitors.

By resolution which was properly adopted by the Board--which resolution was the ordinary motion and a second--it was voted that Mildred D. Watson be named as a County Representative of the KERC and the KHRC--what ever this may mean.

Bids from the oil companies doing business in the County were presented by the County Engineer E. E. Trueblood and the same were opened in the presence of the Board. The following companies submitted bids:

Standard Oil Company
The Derby Oil Company
Independent Oil Company
Kaw Valley Oil Company
Sinclair Refining Company
Texas Oil Company

Continental Oil Company
Barnsdall Refining Company
The K-T Oil Corporation
Phillips Petroleum Company
Skelly Oil Company
National Refining Company

The bids of the various companies were for all practical purposes the same, namely, one and one-half cents under tank wagon prices. After some discussion the Standard Oil Company was named as the company to furnish gasoline to the County for the year 1936.

No further business appearing, the meeting adjourned.
