Commissioners.

September 7, 1937.

On this 7th day of September, 1937, the Board of County Commissioners met in the first meeting of the month, with all members of the Board and the County Clerk present.

There appeared before the Board Mrs. John Clark, to ask for information regarding the adjustment of valuations on properties belonging to the said Mrs. John Clark, which valuations are said to be out of line with adjacent properties. The Board advised Mrs. Clark of the proper time to make an appeal before the Board of Equalization.

Claims against the County for salaries, wages and materials and claims presented from the Welfare Department were submitted to the Commissioners for their close inspection thereof. After carefully scrutinizing the said vouchers, the Board allowed the bills as per Allowance Record.

The Board adjourned to reconvene as the Board of Social Welfare.

The County Director of the Welfare Department, Mrs. Mildred D. Watson, came before the Board with Mr. Benson, State Auditor of the State Social Welfare Department, to discuss with the Board regulations and provisions for the financial and general set-up of the Social Welfare Department.

Mrs. Watson requested the Board to allow her to hire a stenographer for one week during the time that Cecel Johnson regularly employed stenographer in the Welfare Department is on her vacation. The Board gave Mrs. Watson its approval to hire a stenographer for the period of one week at the wage of $12.50 per week.

The Board adjourned to again reconvene as a Board of County Commissioners.

Barr Correll and John L. Banks of Lecompton Township came before the Board to ask the Board to make repairs on the Lecompton Bridge in said Township.

The Board informed the above named men that it would view the said bridge at an early future date.

E. E. Trueblood, County Engineer, discussed several matters with the Board of County Commissioners.

No further business appearing, the Board adjourned to meet at 9:30 A. M., Wednesday September 8, 1937.
