

COMMISSIONER'S RECORD M

May 26, 1938.

Meeting as the Board of County Commissioners, all members of said Board and the County Clerk met in the regular meeting rooms at 9:30 A. M., this day.

There appeared before the Board, a delegation of three men, to request that the Board of County Commissioners employ a care taker for the Woodlawn School in North Lawrence for the months of July and August, so that the school may remain open during the summer months in order that the child W. P. A. Project, in charge of Mrs. Bernice Miller may continue during that time. It was suggested by a Mr. Taylor, present care taker of the building and a member of the delegation, that he would continue his duties for the sum of $1.00 per day.

The Board informed the delegation that they preferred to discuss the matter further before giving its decision in the matter.

The Board adjourned to meet on May 27, 1938.

In regular adjourned session, the Board of County Commissioners of Douglas County, Kansas, met this day with all members of the Board and the County Clerk present.

A Mr. Taylor, who formerly appeared with a delegation requesting the Board of County Commissioners to employ a care taker for the Woodlawn School during the months of July and August, again came before the Board to learn its decision thereof.

The Board gave said Mr. Taylor authority to open the school for the two months of July and August, with the agreement that the custodian would be paid the sum of $1.00 per day.

Further claims against the county were received, scrutinized and ordered paid as recorded in Allowance Record.

The Board adjourned by motion, properly seconded and voted to meet again on May 31, 1938.

May 31, 1938.

The Commissioners of Douglas County met as a Board this 31st day of May, 1938, with all members of said Board and the County Clerk present.

The County Tomato Project was again discussed by the Board with a delegation composed of I. C. Stevenson, J. R. Holmes, Willard Morgan and George Hedrick.

Two members of the City Council met with the Commissioners to discuss the establishing of a Reemployment Office in this city, said office to be in charge of the State. The representatives from the city stated that the City was not desirous of making a decision at this time, until something definite could be set down in writing.

A Cancellation Order for special tax in the Douglas County Kaw Drainage District as prepared by the County Auditor, was presented to the Board. After some discussion, Earl T. Black moved the adoption of the order as presented. James P. Brass seconded the motion. On vote, motion carried. (See Cancellation Order in files of the County Clerk.)

Because of the illness of J. T. Hodges, employee of the County, the Board with the County Engineer discussed the employment of Jim Hodges to work as blacksmith at the county shops. It was suggested that the said Jim Hodges be employed to fill the position of J. T. Hodges if his services prove satisfactory.

No further business appearing, the Board adjourned.
