Mrs. A. G. Alrich met with the Board on the matter of personal tax against property formerly belonging to her but sold on contract to Adolph Ochse. She asked that some consideration be given to these taxes, since she had been led to believe by Mr. Ochse that he would pay same, and since he has failed to do so, it leaves the responsibility on her which she cannot afford to assume.

Although, the Board gave due consideration on the matter, it felt that it could not offer any relief on these taxes.

The Board adjourned to meet at 9 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, November 2, 1938.
