A discussion was held with Roy Flory, Treasurer-elect, and Glenn Charlton, Bond representative, on the bond of said Roy Flory and the possibility of securing sufficient security in the banks wherein county funds are deposited. The banks, heretofore, have refused to put up said security, and before the new Treasurer can furnish his bond to the county, he is required to sign a written statement to be submitted to the bonding company, certifying that all public funds of this county are covered by sufficient security by the banks. It was suggested that there was one alternative in the rental of a joint deposit box. However, nothing definite was done at this meeting.

A request was made by Earl Williamson for a wage increase to the same amount as received by the road employees. No action this day.

Detailed minutes on the appointment of Marion F. Hughes to a Home Visitor Position in the Welfare Department, are recorded in the Social Welfare Minute book.

No further business coming before the Board, said Board adjourned to meet in regular adjourned session, Saturday, September 30, 1939.
