

COMMISSIONER'S RECORD N

31

Douglas County Republican, Lawrence

Claims against the county for materials, supplies etc., were by motion, seconded and voted, allowed this day as recorded on the Allowance Record in the office of the county clerk.

In regard to the County-Township Road Fund, it was discussed by the Board and the Budget Director whether apportionments should be made to the townships or whether this should be set up in a special fund. It was thought that a ruling should be secured by the County Attorney, and until such time, the County Treasurer was directed to make no apportionments to the townships. (The County Treasurer, present, consented to hold the money, until definite action could be taken.)

No further business appearing under the jurisdiction of the Board of County Commissioners, said Board adjourned to meet Wednesday, January 10, 1940.
