

COMMISSIONER'S RECORD N

Dowling County Building, Lawrence

" On checking electric service for the care takers cottage at Lone Star Lake, we recommend the service be connected to present county meter, which is about 850 ft. from cottage.

If the county will set native poles and trim trees to be used as poles and give us the help of the care taker we will donate for the good of the cause the labor to run the 1700 ft. of service wires. No. 8 service wires to be furnished by others."

(1 3/4¢ per ft. 1700' = $30.00.)

Jas. F. Brass moved that the Board authorize T. R. Gerhart, County Clerk to have Fred Shimmons do the wiring of the Care Taker's home as per his bid of $45.00; and, also, accept the proposition written above for the 1700 feet of service wires at the price of $30.00, making a total of $75.00. J. M. Sanderson seconded the motion. On vote, all commissioners voted in the affirmative.
