

COMMISSIONER'S RECORD N

Douglas County Republican, Lawrence

Some discussion was given to the special publication, advertising the opening of the Lone Star Lake, which was issued by the Douglas County Republican. In appreciation for such a fine edition, the following motion was made: It was moved by Jas. F. Brass that the Board of County Commissioners extend a vote of thanks to the Douglas County Republican for their special Lone Star Lake edition, published July 18. J. M. Sanderson seconded the motion. On vote, motion carried unanimously.

The Board adjourned to sit as the Board of Canvassers for the purpose of canvassing the In-State Out-of-County ballots for the Primary Election.

All absentee ballots for voters within the State were presented to the Board by the County Clerk. Said ballots were carefully checked as to qualification of voters, and after so doing, were tabulated and counted as per poll book on file with the County Clerk.

The Board adjourned to meet Wednesday at the hour of 9:30 A. M., as the Board of County Commissioners.
