* Signed January 7, 1941.

Commissioners' Minutes for the months of May and June were read, and approved by proper motion, second and vote, with minor corrections.

For work on the remodeling of the former Red Cross rooms on the third floor of the courthouse, two bids were considered:

Carl Heinrich $77.96 for material and labor.
J. Withers $138.48 for material and labor.

Jas. F. Brass moved that the bid of Carl Heinrich in the amount of $77.96 for remodeling the Red Cross rooms, be accepted, he being the low bidder, and that any materials and supplies salvaged from the partition changes in the rooms now occupied by the Farm Security Administration, be deducted from the material item on said bid. Earl T. Black seconded the motion. Carried by majority vote of the Board.

Further beer licenses were ordered issued as per the following resolutions:

RESOLUTION
