Another applicant for the position of County Engineer, namely, Aldridge Beardslee, met with the Board for a personal interview. Mr. Beardslee is now employed as County Engineer of Smith County, Kansas, where he has been for almost three years. Prior to that he was employed at the West Coast and various other places in the country. He is 33 years of age, and formerly attended school at the University of Kansas. Mr. Beardslee has no written application on file.

John E. Stephens, County Engineer, presented to the Board a list of the employees on the Bridge and Road with recommendations for increases or decreases in their wages.

Harold Wilburn, colored applicant for a job with the county, met as per appointment, with the Commissioners to discuss his qualifications. Immediately, after this interview, came John Taylor, colored, applying for the position of Janitor at the courthouse. Another interview was held with Aubrey R. Cloud and Water Dimery, Mr. Dimer the applicant, and Mr. Cloud acting as the Spokesman for said applicant.

No further business appearing, the Board adjourned to meet at 9:30 A. M., Thursday, January 16, 1941.
