A special meeting called by the Board of County commissioners was held on October 5th at the 4-h fairgrounds to discuss assessment problems of Douglas County.

Seven townships and four cities of Douglas County were represented and each Representative talked of conditions of assessment in his particular locality. It seemed to be the consensus of opinion by the township representatives that improvements needed a revaluation program. The city officials felt the need for revaluation program in the city of Lawrence. A thorough discussion of this matter was held by all attending this meeting.

Mayor Kennedy offered a map showing vacant lots and zoning districts, to the county for their use.

Present were 7 township trustees, noting one exception - Lawrence Leonard representing Grant Township.

From Eudora City - Bill Schehrer, Councilman and Delbert Adams, Mayor.

From Baldwin City - May Roger Martin and Earl Black

from Lecompton City - Starr Glenn.

from Lawrence - City manager, Harold Horn, and Mayor Ted Kennedy Commissioners Cooper and Barteldes.
