

COMMISSIONER'S RECORD P

O. W. Selzer, C. R. Whitley, Aubrey B. Carlson, Jr., W. Roger Martin Mayor and Earl Black.

Earl Black spoke in favor of the annexation, explaining the sewer situation of this area.

S. L. Ford spoke against the annexation. He claimed he did not understand the mayor as to the intentions of the city.

Mrs. Margaret Wilson spoke in opposition to annexation, also did Mr. Elvin Dillon, both on the grounds that the city would be taking part of their land into area, yet their homes would not be served.

John Brown explained how cost of sewer would be prorated to property owners.

Earl Kirker, representing Baldwin Grain Company, spoke in opposition to the annexation.

Mrs. Lois Tucker requested to know how much it would cost her to be annexed and have the city sewer privilege.

City clerk Lamb explained cost to property owners.

Mrs. Ben Francq talked about insurance to property. Don Nutt spoke explaining insurance situation.

Clifford Ikenberry asked about water service to his home.

Russ Hyatt, representing Baldwin Ledger explained service to residents outside city limits.

Mrs. Russell Reed spoke in opposition to annexation, explaining she has children and is a widow and cannot afford it.

Lester Hey, of Hey Machinery, spoke in opposition to annexation because they had built building and layed own sewer line; therefore would not benefit them.

No testimony was offered to show that it would be in the best interest of the city of Baldwin to annex proposed area.

The Mayor stated that if the residents of the area did not want their land to be annexed to the City of Baldwin, the council would not want them to be annexed.

The meeting adjourned.
