Canvassed election

Workmen's Comp. Policy

Delbert Richardson of Richardson Insurance Agency, discussed with us the renewal of our Workmen's Compensation Policy. It was agreed by the Board the policy should be continued with the Richardson's Agency on the same basis it is now written.

Property Valuation restraining order

The Board noted receipt from the Property Valuation Department by certified mail of a notice of and a copy of a restraining order issued by the District Judge of the District Court of Shawnee County for-bidding the Director of Property Valuation to enforce any of his directive of March 24, 1971, to the County Commissioners requiring the Commissioners to pass a Resolution adopting the plan of the Director for equalization of agricultural investment real estate. Having received notice of this restraining order, the Board agreed that no action would be taken relative to the March 24th directive, pending adjudication of the restraining order, a hearing for such having been set for the 22nd day of April, 1971. It was agreed our records should stipulate that the Board has not ignored the March 24th directive of the Director of Property Valuation, but rather simply delayed action on the directive when it became immediately apparent that further clarification and probable adjudication of the directive would be forthcoming.
