Kansas Public
Employment Office - level
of funding

Mr. Ernest Coleman, Federal Grant Administrator of U.S.D. 497, appeared before the Board to discuss with the Board the filing of a request as required by the Kansas Public Employment Office of the level of funding which we would request relative to the continuing of the program after November 1, 1972. The Board agreed that the level of funding should relate to salary increases which would be allowed as of November 1972. Mr. Coleman agreed to submit modification forms and request for future funding on that basis.
