The Board of County Commissioners of Douglas County met in regular adjourned session with all members of the Board present.

Approved the minutes of the meeting of September 18, 1972.

*Claims of Mr. &
Mrs. Raymond Richardson - Juvenile*

Counselor Young, Legal Aid Intern Stephen Cochran, and Mr. Harold Hutton, Juvenile Officer, appeared before the Board to further discuss the claim of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Richardson filed by Mr. Cochran, representing the Richardson's. The claim being filed against Douglas County. This matter was originally discussed briefly on August 30. Following due presentation of all facts in the case, Counselor Young advised the Board that since the Richardson's acted on reliance on the court order that even though said order may not have been in proper form, the county received the benefits of the Richardson's services as foster parents for a juvenile resident of Douglas County and that the Richardson's would seem to be entitled therefore to recover the claim against the county. It was then moved by Mr. Ice that the claim of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Richardson be allowed, seconded by Mr. Cragan, and carried unanimously.

Quatrill Acres performance bond

The Board noted receipt of a letter from Engineer Sanderson to Mr. Harold Anderson, developer of Quatrill Acres Subdivision. The letter sets out to Mr. Anderson the performance bond requirements relative to the construction of roads within Quatrill Acres Subdivision.

Letter for Property Valuation - permissible to use present aerial photos

The Board noted receipt of a letter from Mr. Harold Rohmiller, Director, Department of Property Valuation, explaining that it will be permissible for Douglas County to use present aerial photographs in the new property valuation procedure pending the availability of new maps. The department requests a certificate of intention be remitted indicating the county will purchase new maps when available.

Dg. Co. ASCS meeting

The Board noted receipt of a copy of the minutes of the Douglas County ASCS Defense meeting held August 25, 1972.

No further business, the Board adjourned to meet on Monday, September 25, 1972.

Special Meeting - Canvass Ballots of official city of Lawrence election

The purpose of the special meeting being to canvass the balloting of the special City of Lawrence election held September 19, 1972, for the purpose of deciding upon the repeal of annexing certain lands to the City of Lawrence. The official canvass resulted in the discovery of one error which resulted in an actual tally of thirty-five less votes against repeal of the ordinance than was originally tallied. Following canvassing the Board certified the election which resulted in repeal of the annexation ordinance.
