MARC
Reg. Co. intends
to move to MARC
for emergency
medical services
but regional
interest is toward the medical center

The Board met again with Mr. James Johnson, representing Emergency Medical Services Division of Mid-America Regional Council. Also present were: Kay Kent, Director of Douglas County-Lawrence Public Health Department; Ernest Coleman, County Federal Funds Consultant; Wade Dexter, Administrative Assistant of Lawrence Memorial Hospital; Richard McClanathan, Lawrence-Douglas County Planning Director; Ted McFarlane, Director of Douglas County Ambulance Service; and Ralph Turner, representing Douglas County Council on Aging. Following considerable discussion it was moved by Mr. Whitenight that Douglas County align itself with the Mid-America Regional Council on a strictly temporary basis for the purpose of securing federal funding for Emergency Medical Services for planning and implementation under Section 1202 and 1203 of the applicable legislation, and further that we send strong letters to Mr. Dwight Metzler, Secretary, Department of Health and Environment, and Mr. Marion
