*Health Planning
& Resources Act
discussion*

The following persons appeared to discuss with the Board various aspects of the Health Planning and Resources Act as such may effect Douglas County: Hortense Oldfather, Chairman, Douglas County Comprehensive Health Planning Council; Ralph Turner, member, Douglas County Advocacy Council on Aging; Wade Dexter, Assistant Administrator, Lawrence Memorial Hospital; and Kay Kent, Director, Lawrence-Douglas County Health Department. Following considerable discussion it was agreed that the following indicated a consensus of opinion and that such opinion should be related to Mr. Dwight Metzler, Secretary, Department of Health and Environment:

- (1) That State of Kansas might well be a single health service area
- (2) That any health service area, whether state-wide or otherwise, should not include counties of the Kansas City, Missouri metropolitan area
- (3) That Douglas County remain flexible at this time relative to any subregional alignment or divisional health services area pending further developments
- (4) That Douglas County request opportunity for input prior to any subregional or other than state-wide health services area alignment

Concurrences in this opinion were received from Jan Snyder, Director, Bert
