*Zoning: No action
Private road
Brink*

Jarvis Brink appeared before the Board to request the approval of a private road. Wayne Kellum, county zoning administrator, and Dan Young, county counselor, were present. The request is for approval of a private road which is located in the SW $\frac{1}{4}$  of Section 35, Township 12, Range 18, Douglas County, Kansas. Counselor Dan Young presented the County Commissioners with a letter of his opinion of this private road request. After a general discussion of the Rural Water District No. 1 easement within this 70 foot private road request, Mr. Brink stated that he would deed property to this five acres that is landlocked so that a road easement would not be necessary. Therefore, the County Commissioners took no action on this road request.
