Retirement app.
Designate "Agent"
for D.C.
County Clerk

The Kansas Public Employees Retirement Act of 1961 provides in K.S.A. 74-4902 (6) the following: "'Agent,' the individual designated by each participating employer through whom system transactions and communication shall be direct." It is suggested that the County Clerk be designated as the agent for a participating County. In order to carry out the purposes of the Act, the employer should designate the agent who will act in behalf of the employer. On behalf of Douglas County it was moved by Mr. Cragan that the agent designated in accordance with K.S.A. 74-4902 (6) be Patty Jaimes, County Clerk, seconded by Mr. Neis, and carried.
