

payer, Medicare would help pay for any deductible and coinsurance expenses for Medicare covered services. However, if those employees fail to sign up for the group primary payer plan, the federal government increases the cost of Medicare coverage. This penalty could prove costly. The Board approved a letter notifying persons 65 through 69 of this change in medical insurance coverage laws.

No further business, the Board adjourned to meet on Wednesday, July 20, 1983.
