Kansas City Topeka and Western Rail Road Company.
Second Mortgage

This Indenture made this second day of January A. D. 1882 by and between the Kansas City Topeka and Western Railroad Company a corporation under the laws of the State of Kansas party of the first part and the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company a corporation under the laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Trustee party of the second part witnesseth

That Whereas the said Kansas City Topeka and Western Railroad Company is the owner of a continuous line of railroad from the City of Kansas City in the State of Missouri to the City of Topeka in the State of Kansas

And Whereas said Railroad Company has constructed its road and may hereafter under its present articles or amendments thereof locate and construct extensions and branches thereof and proposes to issue from time to time for purposes authorized by law its second mortgage bonds to an amount not exceeding twelve thousand dollars per mile of completed railroad bearing date the second day of January A. D. 1882 and payable on the first day of January A. D. 1922 and bearing interest payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July at the rate of six per cent. per annum both interest and principal payable in lawful money of the United States of America at its agency in the City of Boston or at such other place or places as its directors may designate said bonds to be issued from time to time in two forms at the discretion of the directors

First For the amount of one thousand dollars each with coupons attached the coupons being in all cases payable to bearer but the bonds being subject from time to time to registration

Second In the form of registered bonds for any multiple of one thousand dollars without coupons both principal and interest of which shall be payable to the registered holder such bonds being exchangeable for ordinary one thousand-dollar coupon bonds at any time on sixty days' notice to the said Railroad Company

And Whereas the said party of the first part has resolved to secure the punctual payment of all said bonds both principal and interest by a mortgage or deed of trust upon its said railroad and all its corporate property and franchises of every nature and kind now owned or hereafter to be acquired together with its revenues and earnings to the party of the second part as trustee and mortgagee for the benefit and security of the holders of said bonds all of which said bonds are to stand equally secured by said mortgage or deed of trust though issued and sold at different times and are to be authenticated by a certificate upon each signed by the trustee to the effect that the bond so certified to is issued under and secured by said mortgage or deed of trust
