the second parts of which the following is a copy - Black Jack Kansas March 1st 1882. - Five years after date hereof for value received we promise to pay to the order of Henry Hughes the principal sum of One Thousand (1000) Dollars lawful money of the United States of America with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum until paid payable annually on the first day of March in each year according to the tenor of five interest notes of One Hundred Dollars each bearing even date herewith hereto annexed both principal and interest notes payable at J. L. Hughes house. And if default be made in payment of interest note or any portion thereof for the space of ten days after the same becomes due and payable, then all said principal and interest notes shall at the option of the said Henry Hughes or the legal holder hereof become at once due and payable without further notice. It is further agreed & decreed that these notes are made and executed under and are in all respects to be governed & construed by the laws of the State of Kansas and are given for the actual loan of one thousand dollars said loan being secured by mortgage on real estate duly recorded.

Now if said parties of the first part shall pay or cause to be paid to said party of the second part his heirs and assigns said sum of money in the above described note mentioned together with the interest thereon according to the terms and tenor of the same; then these presents shall be wholly discharged and paid and otherwise shall remain in full force and effect. But if said sum or sums of money or any part thereof or any interest thereon is not paid when the same is due; and if the taxes and assessments of every nature which now or may be assessed or levied against said premises (No contract to receive money until maturity of notes) or any part thereof are not paid when the same are by law made due and payable; then the whole of said sum and sums and interest thereon shall and by these presents become due and payable and said party of the second part shall be entitled to the possession of said premises. And the said party of the first part further agree upon default of the above covenants and conditions or any or either of them to pay the sum of Fifty ($50) Dollars for the mortgagee or his assigns attorneys fees for foreclosure of this mortgage which sum shall be a lien upon said premises added to the amount of said obligation and secured by these presents and shall be included in and operate as a part of the judgment upon foreclosure of this mortgage. Appraisement waived.

In Witness Whereof the said parties of the first part has hereunto set their hands this day and year first above
