To Have and to Hold these same with all and singular the here inheritments and appurtenances therunto belonging unto the party of the second part and to his heirs and assigns forever

And the said parties of the first part do hereby covenant and agree that at the delivery hereof they are the lawful owners of the premises above granted and seized of a good and indefeasible estate of inheritance therein free and clear of all incumbrances and that they will Warrant and Defend the same in the quiet and peaceable possession of the said party of the second part his heirs and assigns forever against all persons lawfully claiming the same. Provided Always, And these presents are upon this witness same Provided Always. And these presents are upon this express condition that whereas the said parties of the first part are justly indebted unto the said W. C. Beardsley in the principal sum of Three Hundred Dollars lawful money of the United States of America being for a loan thereof on the day and date hereof made by the said W. C. Beardsley to the said parties of the first part and secured to be paid by the certain promissory note of the said parties of the first part bearing even date herewith payable to the order of the said W. C. Beardsley in three (3) years from the date thereof at the office of said W. C. Beardsley in the City of Auburn and State of New York with interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum from date until said principal sum is fully paid said interest to be paid semi-annually on the first day of April and of October in each and every year said several payments of interest being further specified by six interest notes or coupons of even date herewith attached to the said note and payable at said W. C. Beardsleys office in the City of Auburn New York

And in and by said promissory note it is agreed that if default be made in the payment of any one of the installments of interest aforesaid at the time and place aforesaid then at the election of the legal holder of said note the said principal sum of Three Hundred Dollars shall at once become due and payable anything thereinbefore contained to the contrary notwithstanding such election to be made at any time after the expiration of three days without notice

Now if the said parties of the first part shall well and truly pay or cause to be paid the said sum of money in said note mentioned with the interest thereon according to the tenor and effect of said note then these presents shall be null and void. But if said sum of money or any interest thereon is not paid when the same is due and payable or if any taxes or assessments levied against said property are not paid when the same are payable or if default shall be made in the agreement to keep said premises insured as hereinafter set forth then in either of these cases the whole of
