

Bowen hereby covenant and agree to and with said second party, its successors and assigns, that at the delivery of these presents they are lawfully seized in their own right of an indefeasible estate in fee simple absolute in the above described premises, and all appurtenances thereto; that the same are free and clear of and from all former and other grants, estates and incumbrances of every kind and nature; and that they will forever Warrant and Defend the title to said premises and the possession thereof unto said second party, its successors and assigns, against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever.

These Presents, however, are made upon the following Express Conditions: Whereas, said Charles A. Bowen and Adison M. Bowen have this day made and delivered to said New England Loan and Trust Company their certain bond or promissory note for the sum of Twenty two hundred and Fifty Dollars, payable on the first day of March 1891 and bearing interest at the rate of Six per centum per annum, payable semiannually, and evidenced by ten coupons attached thereto, maturing successively on the first day of each March and September. The said bond and coupons payable at the office of said second party in Des Moines, Iowa, and each bearing interest after maturity at the rate of twelve per centum per annum.

The said first party, however reserving herein the right to pay Five hundred dollars or any multiple thereof over that amount upon said bond or note on the day any of said coupons mature on or after March 1, 1889. Provided thirty days notice in writing is given to said second party that such payment will be made, and provided further that in case such partial payments are so made no sum less than five hundred dollars of said bond shall at any time remain unpaid - the making of such partial payments operating to reduce the amount of the coupons maturing thereafter, proportionate to the reduction of said bond.

And whereas, said first party agree with said second party, its successors and assigns, as follows:
